

Three Rivers Club Uniform Policy Revised 2005

The Three Rivers Soccer Club is under contract with PUMA North America to supply all of our Club uniforms and soccer products. At no time should any other brand be worn, advertised or displayed by any member of the Soccer Club, without permission of the Club Uniform Coordinator or Club Director. This includes any part of the official club uniform (jerseys, shorts, socks, warm ups, bags). Failure to comply with this policy will result in disciplinary action from the Three Rivers Club Committee.

Three Rivers Soccer Club and PUMA North America are under contract with Soccerwest as the official distributor of our Club Uniforms and Soccer products. At no time shall any Club uniforms be purchased/ordered through any other distributor or company. Failure to comply with this policy will result in disciplinary action from the Three Rivers Soccer Club Committee.

Coaches

All Three River Soccer Club Head Coaches are required to wear PUMA apparel during all matches or when officially representing Three Rivers. This includes shirts, shorts and warm-ups (depending on weather conditions). During matches the Head Coach shall wear Club issued coaching attire, unless prior permission is obtained by the Club Uniform Coordinator.

Players

All Three River Soccer Club Players shall wear official Club uniforms during all matches. At no time will tank tops, t-shirts (other than U12 Players), or soccer apparel (that can visibly be seen) with a brand name other than PUMA be allowed. Any PUMA uniforms other than current official styles may not be worn without prior approval of the Three Rivers Club Uniform Coordinator. Failure to comply with this policy will result in disciplinary action from the Three Rivers Soccer Club Committee.

No sponsor names or logos are allowed on "Field Play" uniform articles (i.e. jerseys, shorts or socks). Sponsor names and logos are permitted on Three Rivers Soccer Club warm ups, players bags, etc.
